Choose a pair of the matching cards showing an ancient god and the object that has the same name

God: _____

Object: _____

Explain why you think the object was given that name.

Handwriting practice lines on a white background, consisting of 20 horizontal lines.
